

K-LOVE offers a positive choice for listeners in our area. I support it with a monthly pledge and it would be greatly missed if it went off the air. To me this station provides a nice mix of music and news and information that serves the public interest of the listeners very well.